

Policy Endorsement For New Zealand Defence Force

POLICY ENDORSEMENT FOR: New Zealand Defence Force - Leisure Travel Insurance Policy

This endorsement forms part of the contract of insurance, and changes some of the terms, conditions and exclusions contained in the Policy Wording for the New Zealand Defence Force. It is important that the Policy Wording, Certificate of Insurance and this endorsement are read together.

Applicable policy wording: Leisure Travel Insurance Policy Wording
Product Code: NZDFLPW.1_2022

WHO DOES THIS ENDORSEMENT APPLY TO?

Current serving and retired members of the New Zealand Defence force, their spouses and their Dependent Children who purchase a Leisure Travel Insurance Policy for their international travel.

DETAILS OF ENDORSEMENT

1. Eligibility criteria for the policy is amended to the following:

Eligibility criteria for this policy is extended to current serving or retired members of the New Zealand Defence Force, their spouses (by marriage, common law, domestic partnership, or civil union) and their Dependent Children provided that:

- a) they are New Zealand citizens or holders of a valid New Zealand residence class visa, or, hold a temporary visa or permit which allows full access to all publicly funded health and disability services in New Zealand; and
- b) they purchase the policy in either New Zealand or their Country of Assignment prior to the commencement of Journey; and
- c) they intend to return to either New Zealand or their Country of Assignment after the Journey; and
- d) the start date on the policy reflects the date they leave their residence in either New Zealand or their Country of Assignment to start their Journey.

2. The following definition is added to the policy:

Country of Assignment means the country, other than New Zealand, where the New Zealand Defence Force member (and their family members if applicable) has been posted or deployed to carry out work activities for the New Zealand Defence Force.

